ORDER

The petition has been placed before the Commission for admission. On preliminary scrutiny of the Petition, some deficiencies were observed by the Commission which were conveyed to PSTCL vide letter no. 2143 dated 12.12.2019. PSTCL submitted its reply to the deficiencies vide letter no. 3970 dated 19.12.2019 (received on 26.12.2019). The same has been perused and found to be still deficient. Details of the deficiencies are placed at Annexure-A of this Order. However, keeping in view the fact that the new tariff has to be finalized before the start of the next FY 2020-21, the petition is admitted with the directions to PSTCL as under:

- i) To submit the pending information at the earliest to enable timely processing of the petition.
- ii) To issue a public notice containing highlights of the ARR for inviting objections from the public on the petition. The public notice may be got published in five widely circulated daily newspapers (English, Hindi and Punjabi).
- iii) The publication of the public notice calling for objections from general public may be arranged immediately but not later than 3 days so as to enable the Commission to proceed further in the matter. PSTCL may also ensure availability of material of the notice for public scrutiny/ sale, in adequate numbers in all the offices to be mentioned in the public notice so as to avoid any complaint of their non-availability in nominated offices.
- iv) All co-operation and courtesy may be extended to the public for their inspection and perusal of the documents/material so as to avoid any complaint from public about non-availability or non-accessibility. Arrangements may also be made to ensure sale of documents to interested parties on payment of the fixed price.
- v) Replies to the objections may be prepared and sent to the Commission in ten copies within seven days of receipt of each objection with copies to the objectors.
