ORDER

The Ld. Counsel for PSPCL has requested a short adjournment for filing the reply. PSPCL shall file reply on affidavit within two days with a copy to GVK (through hard copy and soft copy). GVK shall provide the following information in 7 sets on hard copy within a week:-

1. Reply to the Joint Verification Report sent by PSPCL.
2. As per Article 4 of the BHEL contract, exchange rate of EURO & USD prevailing on due date of payment is payable. Please provide the document to substantiate the claim of foreign exchange rate variation (FERV).
3. Details of the incomplete and deferred works (the works which have not been initiated/started) as on 16.04.2016 alongwith their costs in respect of works covered under BTG, BOP, Non-EPC etc. The details of deferred/un-discharged liabilities as on 16.04.2016 in respect of completed works shall also be given.
4. Clarify overlapping if any, in details of incomplete/leftover works in petition no. 54 of 2017 and 70 of 2017 clearly indicating the scope of work to be taken up in petition no. 70 of 2017.
5. Justification regarding enhancement in the rates as well as quantities due to change in scope of civil works in 2011-12 under Non-EPC as both the units of the project were ready without much delay i.e. by March, 2014 for oil synchronization.
6. Supply the final drawings (at 100% scale) as approved by railway authorities for Khadur Sahib railway station, lead line and lines in plant yard area clearly indicating their length.
7. GVK to clarify whether the amount of Rs. 1.26 crore claimed as codal charges under head non EPC works- Direct in Annexure-6 filed with the submissions dated 01.08.2019 is included or not included in Rs. 2.58 crore claimed as codal charges mentioned in the vetted estimates of Railways and included in the claim of Rs. 23.94 crore deposited with Railways. If not included, then the estimate of the work for which these codal charges of Rs. 1.26 crore have been paid, as vetted by Railways be submitted alongwith payment receipts issued by Railways for Rs. 2.58 crore and Rs. 1.26 crore.

The petition shall be taken up for hearing on 27.11.2019 at 11.00 AM.
